Loan to Fund

Looking forward

- Further margin reduction is not expected for the time being. However, the interest rate situation remains very dynamic amid pressure to reduce lending rates.
- Slowdown expected in private sector credit growth in next quarters though IDLC will continue to pursue quality growth in the lending portfolio if opportunity persists.
- Focus will be on further strengthening sustainable sources of fee based income in the longer term, with special emphasis on investment banking, corporate advisory and alternative investment management services.
- Industry-wide NPL scenario might deteriorate in case liquidity pressure re-emerges/continues. Careful monitoring and proactive actions required to contain NPL.
